

Frequently Asked Questions: Facilities

Q What is the source?

A the source is EM Media's interactive online database of locations, crew and facilities.

Q What types of facilities do you want listed on your database?

A In order to fully support the range of productions that use the East Midlands as a production base and for filming the source needs to contain an extensive range of facilities including studio space, sound stages, post-production houses, production & filming vehicles, catering, serviced accommodation, set construction, production offices, casting and extras agencies, to name but a few!

Q How do I get my business listed?

A Fill in our online registration form. Your details will then be approved by the EM Media locations team before your listing appears online. There may be a slight delay while the system transfers your data.

Q What will be included in my listing?

A A standard facilities listing on the source includes company name and contact details.

Q Is there a fee involved?

A There is no charge for a standard facilities listing on the source. However, there is the option to pay a small fee for an enhanced listing. For further details download our facilities rate card or contact us, details at the bottom of the page.

Q How many people visit the source?

A Visitor numbers to the source have grown steadily from 5,982 in 2004 to 39,421 in 2007.

Q Who uses the source?

A the source already has a reputation as being the first port of call for any production visiting the East Midlands region. Visitors to the source over the past year have included production personnel from Working Title Films, BBC Films, Channel 4, Universal Pictures and Warp X.

Q How many enquiries do you currently get?

A The Locations Team received on average 15 enquiries a month, that's roughly four per week.

Derbyshire, Leicestershire, Lincolnshire, Northamptonshire, Nottinghamshire and Rutland.*
